2. INHERENT RIGHTS OF THE CHILD(REN)

This mother and father will remain parents of their child(ren) and are expected to make decisions and engage in behaviors that are in the best interests of their child(ren). The parents shall cooperate with respect to each child so as, in a maximum degree, to advance each child's health, emotional, and physical well-being, and to give and afford each child the affection of both parents and a sense of security. Neither parent will, directly or indirectly, influence each child so as to prejudice a child against the other parent. The parents will endeavor to guide each child so as to promote the affectionate relationship between each child and the mother and each child and the father. The parents will cooperate with each other in carrying out the provisions of this order for a child's best interest. Whenever it seems necessary to adjust, vary or increase the time allotted to either parent, or otherwise take action regarding a child, each of the parents shall act in the best interests of each child. Neither parent shall do anything which may estrange the other from each child injure each child's opinion of the other parent, or which will hamper the free and natural development of each child for the other parent.

3. PARENTING TIME

The Parenting Time Plan is attached and is incorporated in this Temporary Order. The Parenting Time Plan sets forth: 1) the parents' values and goals that will be used when raising their child; 2) how each parent will spend time with their child; and 3) how each parent will handle any parenting time disagreements with the other parent.

4. RESIDENCES

a. LOCAL RESIDENCES: A parent of a child whose custody is governed by this court order shall not change a legal residence of the child to a location that is more than 100 miles from the child's legal residence at the time of the commencement of the action in which the order was issued.

b. STATE OF RESIDENCE (DOMICILES): The residences (domiciles) of each minor child shall not be moved from the State of Michigan without the prior approval of the court.

c. NOTICE OF CHANGE OF RESIDENCE: Each parent shall promptly notify the friend of the court and the other parent in writing when there is a change in his or her address.

5. DESIGNATION OF CUSTODY

A designation of custody is solely for the purpose of state or federal statutes or other legal requirements that require a designation or determination of legal or physical custody, such as tax exemptions or health care benefits. This designation does not affect either parent's responsibilities under this temporary order or the parenting-time plan.
