PDR Application to Remain Active – 2018 Cycle

Pursuant to Section 7: Application and Selection Process; E., of Ordinance No. 04-01

All applications represent the applicant's intent to sell the development rights of the property to Kent County subject to mutually acceptable terms. The application will remain active by way of annual written approval of the property owner, provided there is no subsequent modification to the scoring criteria or application that requires additional information. Local cities, villages, and townships will be asked to sign a letter of continued support for standing property owner applications, and all applications, both new and old, will be scored and ranked for each cycle.

Yes, I would like my application to the Kent County Agriculture Preservation Program to remain active for the 2017 application cycle. To the best of my knowledge, no changes have occurred to negatively impact the farms agricultural integrity. I understand that by remaining active in the 2018 application cycle, my farm will be re-scored and re-ranked with all applications submitted.
